4. Reflection of this week:

— Inputs: good, busy, looking forward to the pub quiz

— Regarding the question if NHL Stenden is different to previous education:

- Inputs: NHL Stenden is very different (due to the flexible schedules; the school feels like a home)

— Upgrade recommended to NHL Stenden: gym

— Reply: HBO Sports may be able to help

Discussion of this week's lectures and workshops:

— Inputs: fine, useful

— Request about organisation: slower pacing in classes, due to vagueness

— Reply: request the lecturers to elaborate

Discussion of the guidance from lecturers regarding web development:

— Inputs: very good

Discussion of the organisation of the project:

— Inputs: initial confusion (for example, people planning for milestones that were changed), but everything was cleared up; unexpected topics came up; overwhelmed due to lack of clarity, adjustments needed

Discussion of the bases of Design-Based Education:

- Social constructivism: different people are put together, so they are able to contribute to each other's knowledge by communicating (this is more engaging and educational than a lecturer educating)
