- Education – How I Experience Current Education
- Connections, Communication – How I Fit Into the Community
- Portfolio – How My Portfolio Was Created
- Reflection – How I See My Progress
- Closing

INTRODUCTION

- Length – 10 minutes
- Topics – Education, Community, Portfolio, Reflection
- Questions may be asked at the end of the presentation

EDUCATION

- Main differences include proactivity, teamwork, learning style.
- Hungarian education: less focus on personal improvement, more on meeting standardised criteria.
- Dutch education: prioritisation of teamwork and professional future.

CONNECTIONS, COMMUNICATION

- Fitting in has been easier than I had ever anticipated.
- The many cultures people brought with them have provided me with new, broader perspectives.
- Communication was challenging at times – managing different habits and communication styles proved to be a difficulty occasionally

PORTFOLIO

A top-down view of a desk with a keyboard, a cup of coffee, a plant, and various stationery items. The desk is light-colored wood. A white keyboard with grey keys is at the bottom. A white mug with a pink rim sits on a pink coaster. A small potted plant with green leaves is on the right. A blue folder is at the top left. A ruler and a pen are at the top center. A pair of glasses and a paperclip are at the top right. A small basket with a plant is at the bottom right.

- Process:

- 1. Go through and understand the checklist.
- 2. Compile required documents I already have in one folder.
- 3. Create list of documents I need to create or request from other students.
- 4. Slowly obtain documents and organise them.

- Procrastination and stress were the main difficulty I faced.

REFLECTION

- The semester was eventful, filled with learning opportunities and new experiences.
- Main takeaways:
 - New tools and helpful skills (such as time-management, leadership skills and work ethics).
 - An understanding of areas where I need to improve.
 - Clearer expectations of the future.

Thank you for your attention!
